Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord, we try to choose your word, will, and way as guides for our thinking, our actions, and our lives. We do choose to care about Jesus and you who sent him to us. We know that we struggle to show how we love you. We do find it difficult to keep Jesus' words, Jesus' teaching, and Jesus' guidance. Forgive us. We do need your help doing what Jesus taught and keeping your word to us. We need your presence, your Holy Spirit as advocate and teacher, to remind us of all Jesus taught us and to teach us your word, will and way. We want to know the peace that you give. We don't want our hearts troubled and fearful. We want to hear the promptings of you Spirit, trust in your direction, and express our faith through how we live our lives.
