Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord, we know you urge us to do what is right in your sight and to pay attention to your voice in our lives. And we hear the questions, why do you pass judgement on your brother or sister? Why do you despise any of God's children? We do struggle with this Lord. We want to hold others accountable to our way of seeing things. We want to condemn those we disagree with. And so, we need your forgiveness, just as you invite us to forgive others. We know we are accountable to you, Lord, and we need your grace. Indeed, help us receive your forgiveness and recognize how important it is for us then to show this same forgiveness to others. Let us not make a mockery of your mercy but teach us to be merciful as well. Help us understand, embrace, and engage in the unending process of giving and receiving mercy, of forgiving and receiving forgiveness, for knowing grace and showing grace.
