P: For the LORD has been good to you.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Dear Lord, we express our gratitude to you today. You give us so much we are thankful for. When we are paying attention, we see you have lavished us with blessings in our families and our lives. Yet we confess we are not always thankful. Sometimes we are too distracted or self-absorbed to see what you have given us. Other times we see the pain and suffering, and the war, violence, and abuse in our world. What are you doing, God? We can't be thankful for these terrible things. We confess that when we look at the world, we wonder where you are. And we have trouble believing you are good or that you are at work in the wreck of our world. Help us trust you. Remind us of your faithfulness. Renew our eyes to see your good work around and in us. Help us remember that the good things are as true as the bad ones.

“Lover of My Soul”

Praise Team

Their human bones are as fragile as mine. I have my flaws but they have the same kind.
I was ashamed ‘cause I couldn’t see that grace says that they’re in the same boat as me.

And what I lack, You are full of. And where I’m broken, You are whole.
And what I’m doubting, You are sure of, so I’ll trust the lover, the lover of my soul.

I’m not afraid of the arrows by day, Nor the darkness that comes when the sun rolls away.
Lord, You know that my strength never lasts, but You make up for ev’ry weakness I have.

What I confess, You will cover. And what I let go, You’ll control.
Lord, my hope is in no other. I’ll trust the lover, the lover of my soul.
