Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

God, we’re bringing you a lot today. Our community suffered violence and tragedy a week ago, and that’s affecting us all. This week, the sin we’re mostly concerned with is one that was committed by someone else. We are sad and uncertain, full of questions. We’re at a turning point in the year, about to celebrate Thanksgiving and move into the Advent season. Yet we’re so unsettled, and we don’t know if we can trust and hope. Your prophets give us words of hope, but at this troubled time, we’re not sure if we are convinced by them. Do you offer a foundation firm enough to deal with these circumstances? Now we face the reality of our own hearts. Will we turn to you? Encourage our trust in Jesus, who also suffered, who offers grace and cares about our fears.
