

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR THE WEEK OF JANUARY 10

DEACONS' JANUARY BENEVOLENCE OFFERING This month, the Deacons will direct our benevolence offerings to the Moscow Food Bank. If you would like to help support the food bank in its mission to feed those in need in our community, send your check to First Presbyterian Church, memo "Jan. benevolence" or give online via Tithe.ly.

JOB OPENING AT FPC – DIRECTOR OF FAMILY MINISTRY

We are looking for someone with a heart for Family Ministry to coordinate FPC's ministry and outreach to families and the individuals in them, providing appropriate avenues for faith development in children and youth, encouraging youth to know Christ and to become disciples, and engaging parents in ongoing faith development. For a complete job description, application, and information on how to apply for this is a 30 hour per week salaried position, visit our website: fpcmoscow.org/jobs.aspx. Contact the church office with questions. Applications are currently being accepted, and the search will remain open until the position is filled. Help us spread the word!

PASSING THE OFFERING PLATE VIRTUALLY As we enter a new year, we have new opportunities to support the work of our church within the congregation and out in our community. It looks like it will be a while longer before we can come together in the sanctuary, but our monetary gifts are as important as ever to the continuing ministry of First Presbyterian Church. Offerings may be made in one of these ways:

- Give online using the GIVE button on the FPC website or <https://tithe.ly/give?c=982246>
- Mail your check to First Presbyterian Church, 405 S. Van Buren, Moscow, ID 83843

Monthly offering envelopes are available on the narrow table next to the stairs in the lower chapel room. Stop by and pick up a set, or contact the office to have a set dropped off to you.

THERE IS STILL TIME TO PLEDGE FOR 2021 If you have not made a pledge of time, talents, and treasure for the coming year, you may still do so. Since we can't pass the plate in worship right now, our non-pledged giving has been and will continue to be less than anticipated, making it more important than ever for our session to know how much income they have to work with in setting a budget for this year. Please send in your pledge forms or contact John Farbo with your pledge information at fpcfinsec@turbonet.com.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the congregation, the corporation of First Presbyterian Church of Moscow, and Lael, Inc. will be held on Sunday, January 31 at 11:45 a.m. The meeting will be held via Zoom, and congregation members will be able to join the meeting over the internet or by phone. The congregation will vote on amendments to the church bylaws; the election of Elders, Deacons, Nominating Committee, and Board members for Lael; and the pastor's compensation for 2021. Watch for details in upcoming announcements. Annual reports will be mailed out to church members at the end of this week. If you would prefer to receive the report via email, contact the church office by this Thursday.

CARING ANGEL NETWORK If you become ill, contact the church so we can pray for you and, if needed, bring meals or run errands. Please contact your deacon, Deacon Moderator Susan Billin at 208-310-1151 or susan.billin@gmail.com, or the church office at 208-882-4122 or office@fpcmoscow.org. Our caring volunteers are ready to help.

MASKING UP YARD SIGNS We have a new supply of "Masking Up to Love our Neighbors" signs, available for a suggested donation of $5 each. If you or someone you know would like one (or more), call or text Mary Read at 208-301-1046.

PRAYER BOARD New in the church yard is a prayer board where we, as a community, will be able to share our grief and sorrow, hopes and prayers, through prayer flags, written prayers, remembrances, photos, etc. More details to come. This idea was conceived by Pastor Norman with the support of our Session, and built by Andy Johansen.
